Upon arrival Officer Lopez made contact with [REDACTED] who wanted to report she was held at gunpoint this morning and had her gray 2012 Jeep Liberty (Tx. Lp's BXX-00[REDACTED]) was taken from her without her consent. Mrs. [REDACTED] stated at around 07:00 AM, she arrived at the Junior's Supermarket located at 108 E. F.M. 495 San Juan, Tx. and parked her vehicle in an aisle in front of the store. Mrs. [REDACTED] stated she went inside the store to purchase some items and later exited the store and walked back to her Jeep. Mrs. [REDACTED] stated she as she arrived at her vehicle and opened the door, she heard a male voice saying give me the keys. Mrs. [REDACTED] stated she then felt an object, she believed it was a handgun, at her side and a male subject telling her to get into her Jeep. Mrs. [REDACTED] stated she was forced into her Jeep through the driver side and she was forced to climbed over the center console to sit in the passenger seat. Mrs. [REDACTED] stated the male got into the driver seat, ordered her to turn off her phones and keep her eyes closed, then drove off. Mrs. [REDACTED] stated she was held against her will as the male jammed, what she believes was a handgun, into her side. Mrs. [REDACTED] stated she was held against her will as the male drove her Jeep until they arrived in an area where she observed a lake. Mrs. [REDACTED] stated she was told to get out of the Jeep in a secluded field and told not to report the Jeep stolen or the male would kill her and her family. Mrs. [REDACTED] stated the male left and she began to walk until she arrived at a store in the area of Ramseyer Road and Cesar Chavez Road. Mrs. [REDACTED] described the male a short in height, medium completion, wearing a blue plaid shirt and spoke Spanish.

A short time later a white Ford F150 arrives at the Junior's parking lot and parks in an aisle east from Mrs. Vilella's Jeep. Mrs. [REDACTED] is seen walking into the store and a short time later a male in a blue plaid shirt is seen getting out of a white Ford F150. The Ford F150 then leaves the area as the male subject stays roaming the parking lot. Mrs. [REDACTED] is seen walking back to her Jeep then opens her driver side door. As Mrs. [REDACTED] is at the open Jeep driver door, the male subject in the blue plaid approaches her as he is seen taking an object out of his waistband.
